

September is National Preparedness Month

September is National Preparedness Month. Follow these steps so you and your family are better prepared for severe weather or any emergency. Learn more: preparedde.org